Elie Younes, executive vice president and chief development officer, Radisson Hotel Group, said: "Radisson provides a unique value proposition to both guest and owners in the full-service segment based on a compelling guest experience within an efficient real estate framework. We now enter our third Indian Ocean Island with the first upscale internationally branded hotel. We look forward to a mutually rewarding journey with our partners and thank them for their trust."

Saint Denis is the administrative capital of the French overseas region, located on the north end of Reunion Island and Radisson's newest hotel is located on the major axe within walking distance from the main commercial and financial district.

The hotel will be positioned in front of the Promenade, between the old town and the main highway, allowing easy access across the city, with access to Saint Denis Roland Garros International Airport, the main airport in the Reunion Island.

Property features

Inside the hotel's 124 upscale rooms and suites, guests will discover modern amenities.

The hotel will feature five food and drink outlets, with cuisine suited to every taste at the all-day dining restaurant, the destination restaurant as well as the lobby café. Guests will also be able to explore the hotel bars, which includes a bar and lounge on the rooftop that overlooks views of the Island.

Owners of the hotel Semir Soundardjee and Altaf Soundardjee of Aniva SA, said: "We are proud to be partnering with Radisson Hotel Group to bring Saint Denis' first internationally branded hotel to the city. The hotel will undergo a complete transformation and will reopen its doors within 2020 with a leading hotel product, including expansive meeting space and a trendy rooftop bar, further uplifting the area. We look forward to continuing our long-term relationship with the group and together introducing the Scandinavian-inspired Radisson brand to the Indian Ocean Islands."

The hotel's 416 m<sup>2</sup> of meeting and events space will be made up of a large conference room and six meeting rooms along with a fully equipped gym.
