

Fort Boyard Africa now on Canal+ in Africa

Canal+ is pleased to announce the launch of the world-famous television concept, Fort Boyard, with an edition specially designed for the African continent: Fort Boyard Africa, the first African adventure show, produced by Canal+ International, Videorama and Adventure Line Productions.

Image source: Gallo/Getty.

As from September, Canal+ in Africa, will welcome 50 personalities from all over Africa to the legendary fort. The participants have agreed to play the game for their charitable associations. Among these personalities, there are artists such as, Magic System group, Safarel Obiang, Mani Bella, Locko, Singuila, The Toofan, actor Issaka Sawadogo and the Olympic taekwondo champion, Cheick.

Viewers will be able to watch their stars as they have never seen them before. Indeed, celebrities will test their courage, overcome their fears and perform hard and spectacular tests: jump into the void; swim in the company of crocodiles; rub shoulders with tigers, snakes and tarantulas; all with a common goal: to try to win for the African charities they defend.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>