Algoa FM rocked the city of Nelson Mandela Bay when they pulled off their first music festival this weekend featuring seven of SA's top national acts.

More than 5,000 people danced the day away on Saturday, 7 March at the Nelson Mandela Bay Stadium to watch their favourite artists including Mi Casa, Goldfish, Jimmy Nevis, Lloyd Cele, Stuart Reece, Prime Circle and Kurt Darren. The seven hour concert started at 12pm and concluded at 7pm with Mi Casa as the final act.

"This event can be benchmarked against international standards and we are proud to say that with the hard work of our professional team at Algoa FM we were able to literally pull it off in just two months", says Managing Director of Algoa FM, Dave Tiltmann.

"Our social media platforms were flooded over the weekend with positive messages from people congratulating us on an amazing event that was well organised and grateful that we brought this festival to the city", says Marketing manager of Algoa FM, Toinette Koumpan.

"This is definitely going to be an annual event and we look forward to growing this festival every year, making it even more spectacular than the previous one. There's still many more great things to come from Algoa FM", says Tiltmann.
