

Chill in a world of Danone Frozen Yoghurt fun at the Rand Show 2017

Snow in Gauteng? Unlikely. In April? Only with Danone! An avalanche of frozen yoghurt fun awaits Rand Show visitors this year.

This year, the Rand Show presents the all-new Danone Frozen Yoghurt World.

With snow tubing on the snow ramp, snowman building, frozen yoghurt popsicles and lots of photo opportunities in the snow globe and castle, there's mounds of snowy fun to be had at the Danone Frozen Yoghurt World, new and exclusive to the Rand Show this April. At Nasrec from 14-23 April 2017.

A highlight of this wintery playground is the Danone snow-tubing slope, a six-metre-high snow ramp covered in 20 centimetres of real snow where you can grab a snow tube and hang on tight for 30 metres of sliding fun.

Another highlight is the Danone Frozen Yoghurt Bar. Buy a Danone Frozen Yoghurt Popsicle and see how easy it is to make your own popsicles, adding cool, delicious, nutritious fun to any home occasion.

Then head to the snow play area. It's the perfect place for building a snowman, making snow castles or just enjoying the crunch of snow beneath your feet.

Since snow is such a rare sight in Gauteng, where even the winter sky is blue, a few photos are definitely in order. The Danone Frozen Yoghurt World has created a fairytale castle that doubles as a giant doll's house: just right for a quick photo before it's playtime with the castle toys and dolls. You can also climb inside the giant Danone snow globe and be the star of your own winter wonderland.

This memorable wintery experience in the Danone Frozen Yoghurt World is just part of the line-up of top-class entertainment at this year's Rand Show.

South Africa's biggest consumer expo is the only show to offer attractions covering everything from sport, motoring, military, and science and technology, to design, animals, gardening, health and beauty, and variety shows... there's an entire day out for the whole family packed into each Rand Show ticket.
