“We are elated by this acknowledgment from industry tastemakers. Receiving more nominations than any other commercial radio station in the Cape is testament to our world-class approach to broadcasting and content. This, together with Kfm gaining the largest one-week cumed of any station in the Cape according to the latest BRC RAMs are key highlights for the station. Kfm 94.5 has always been focused on creating a deep connection with audiences, and these nominations are evidence of our 360-degree approach to radio and storytelling, our incredible talent, and our quest to make the brand come alive both on-air and off-air,” said Stephen Werner, Kfm 94.5 Programme Manager.
