Leading SA marketing technology agency, Social Places, has introduced a community management portal to complement its existing reputation management software. The reputation suite also aggregates reviews from across multiple channels, manages in-store and website feedback, chatbot conversations as well as email and telephone cases - creating a holistic customer care solution for multi-location brands.

Social Places Introduces

SA's first all-in-one CRM, Reviews, Chatbot, Social Comments, Surveys & Live Customer Feedback Platform

"Managing the comments, messages and interactions you receive across multiple Facebook pages can be a challenging one, especially for multi-location brands with 100's and sometimes 1000's of location pages," says Ashleigh Wainstein, cofounder of Social Places.

"The team at Social Places has designed the feature specifically to make community management easier for franchise and multi-location brands. We believe we are the first SA-based technology product to provide a holistic CRM solution covering reviews, social comments, surveys and chatbot conversations. Since launching the feature last week we have already aggregated over 1.2 million comments, across 500,000+ posts for our clients.”

The Facebook Community Management tool, includes the below features:

- Personalised ‘suggested responses’ in your brand tone allow you to streamline responses at scale and have quicker turnaround times.
- Custom workflows for teams/franchisees to easily collaborate on customer feedback across teams.
- Omni-channel chat support - Easily email, sms or respond to a customer within the same chat window.
- Our proprietary “Action items” feature ensures you never miss a comment.
- Categorise comment sentiment to provide insights at a brand or store level.
