Although many hands may have been cold this past July, many hearts were certainly warmed with creativity and inspiration when the Algoa FM HOMEMAKERS Expo saw thousands of visitors experiencing an underground meander of home related products and services at Moffett on Main Lifestyle Centre in Port Elizabeth.

Held from 28 - 31 July, the 220 stands offered homeowners ample browsing and buying opportunities and products on display ranged from essential home improvement products and services to the oh-so-nice aspirational items.

Apart from the trendsetting exhibits, the expo also presented some exciting features. Media guru Annemarie Meintjes captivated visitors' attention with her décor talks pertaining the latest trends and global ideas at the Speakers Corner. Taste buds were stimulated and bellies filled at Gourmet Garage and kids enjoyed their very own expo within an expo at the Kids Expo. HOMEMAKERS was proud to do their part for charity by fully supporting the Coega Door of Hope Project driven by Gladys Panda. This initiative saw Gladys educating, supporting and mothering 36 abandoned children.

Congratulations to all award-winning exhibitors!

Top accolades went to Trish Strydom Interiors who won the Overall Award for Exhibitor Excellence.

Certificates of excellence went to: Hullabaloo, Gently Worn, Bubbles and Bees and Maywood Panel Company.

Recognition awards went to: Just Cabinets, Fun Interiors, TWA Banisters, Executive Blinds/American Shutters, Plantation Shutters, Linea Cassabela, Easi-Turf, Rennasance Construction, Mosaic Africa, ECL Industries, Liquid Wallpaper, Electro Medics, New room Designs, Sakura Knives, Moffett on Main Lifestyle Centre, Plumbblink, Magic Wrench, Lorna's Pianos and Smartstone.

Be sure not to miss the Cape HOMEMAKERS Expo, on from 1- 4 September at the CTICC and the Durban HOMEMAKERS Expo, on from 6-9 October at the Durban Exhibition Centre.
