Zookey Vutela - the unique Durban diva who commands the airwaves at Gagasi FM from Teatime to Lunchtime (between 9am and 12 noon) - will be pressing the red button for the R40 million Lotto draw on national television on Saturday March 30.

"I am a dreamer who enjoys watching dreams come true - for me and for others. I believe in happily ever afters in real life and movies," she says. This month she has added television to that list with no less than three appearances in March - Top Billing, Eastern Mosaic and now the Lotto.

Zookey hit the radio scene in KwaZulu Natal with a very brief stint as a receptionist at one local radio stations. From there, she moved into Marketing and then found her niche behind the mic at Gagasi FM.
