

Botswana wildlife film wins three awards at New York Cinematography Awards

Birth of a Pride was awarded the titles of Best Nature/Travel film, Best Original Score, and Best Sound at the New York Cinematography Awards (NYCA).

The film is about the extraordinary journey of lions returning to a reserve in Botswana as they grow from a single female and her cub into a fully formed, majestic hunting pride.

NYCA is a monthly film competition for filmmakers worldwide.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>