

New MD appointed to ABN Board

The ABN Group, the holding company for CNBC Africa and the recently launched Forbes Africa magazine, has appointed Roberta Naidoo to its Board as the new Managing Director for South Africa. Naidoo who has been with CNBC Africa since February 2008 has grown with the company into this new role and will assume the full operational duties of the group, Naidoo will still hold the position as Chairman of the board for ABN Kenya as well her membership on the board of directors for ABN Nigeria and Forbes Africa.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>