

Pinky Kekana launches Africa Code Week

The deputy minister of communications Pinky Kekana has launched Africa Code Week, the initiative that is led by SAP as part of its social investment program to drive sustainable growth in Africa.

Media are invited to the event at The Venue, Melrose Arch, 17th High Street, Johannesburg at 9am.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>