

Bateleur Business Planning awarded new contracts

Bateleur Business Planning, a market research company based in Blairgowrie, Randburg, has been awarded the contract to conduct research projects for two of South Africa's most prestigious corporates - JSE Securities Exchange and Metropolitan Health. Bateleur Business Planning has also been appointed as one of Telkom's exclusive research suppliers.

Bateleur Business Planning has, for 10 years, been making use of fast, accurate research techniques to provide viable and accurate answers to vital market questions. The company provides customised research solutions for a variety of industries with its services being used by some of South Africa's blue chip brands.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>