

D.M. Distributors to deliver Engen oil products in Mozambique

D.M. Distributors has been appointed to distribute Engen's range of oil-based products in the Mozambican region of Nacala. D.M. Distributors will also distribute selected PETRONAS Syntium engine oils and PETRONAS marine lubricants from Engen's Nacala depot.

Engen hopes to expand its presence in Mozambique through this partnership with D.M. Distributors. Engen is a subsidiary of Malaysia's national oil company, PETRONAS.
