This follows consultations on Tuesday, 31 January 2023, between Sanral, led by the chairman of the board, Themba Mhambi and chief executive officer, Reginald Demana, and the KwaZulu-Natal Provincial Government, as well as local government leaders, where the resumption of collection of toll fees was discussed.

The Provincial Government of KwaZulu-Natal and Sanral agreed on Tuesday night that further consultations will take place shortly, following which an announcement regarding the resumption of toll fee collections will then be made.
