

Shahied Daniels named Saipa CE

The South African Institute of Professional Accountants (Saipa) has appointed Shahied Daniels as its new chief executive.

The board selected Daniels for his local and international knowledge, insights, and experience. In his new role, he is to use his expertise to help Saipa navigate the challenges posed by the fourth industrial revolution and the public interest.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>