

Grobank appoints Bafana Mathidi

Grobank has appointed Bafana Mathidi as a non-executive director following approval by the South African Reserve Bank.

Mathidi has almost two decades of experience in financial services; the last ten years saw him in asset management, responsible for pensions and various institutional clients' investments.

He is a founding member and head of equity and multi-asset strategies at Aluwani Capital Partners.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>