

New GM for Radisson Blu Hotel & Residence Cape Town

Radisson Blu Hotel & Residence Cape Town, which is set to open its doors in April 2017, has appointed Desmond O' Connor as its new GM.

O' Connor will be tasked with the responsibility of operational aspects of the establishment, including the efficient running of the property and making sure that guests receive the best service that this five-star hotel has to offer.

O' Connor has served 27 years in the South African hospitality industry and was previously general manager of Mandela Rhodes Place, before joining The Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group's Radisson Blu in Port Elizabeth in 2014.
