

Emperors Palace launches web-based learning platform

Emperors Palace has launched an e-learning platform titled 'Lobster Ink'.

The platform will support and promote workplace skills development and training for its employees by providing unlimited access to modules that cover a range of topics and specialties.

The purpose of the learning programme is to improve the service standards of Emperors Palace.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>