

Bonang Matheba is apartment hunting in New York

Bonang Matheba is currently apartment hunting in New York as she is in the process of shooting a new reality TV series in the city.

The series, Bonang - Coming to America, is being produced by Red Button Films, CSA global and Bonang Matheba Entertainment.

"I'm excited to explore my personal style and narrative in the US as well as share projects I'm working on. While the world has become a lot smaller, Africa's place in it has got a lot bigger and it's a massive honour to be part of this growth," says Bonang.
