

Dance your way across Africa

Channel O is kicking off the New Year with a dance show contest designed to provide a platform for original freestyle dancers on the continent. The show, hosted by Lungile Radu, begins with preliminary rounds in seven African cities. Two dancers from each city will be selected to compete in the finals in Johannesburg at a later stage, where the 14 finalists will battle it out until only one remains to be crowned Africa's ultimate freestyle dancer. For more info, go to www.channelo.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>