

Fastjet unveils new fare structure

Fastjet has implemented a new fare structure that enables its customers to select between two fare products.

The first option fare product is a basic flight for travel to a destination which includes 7kg hand luggage but excludes all checked baggage, which will be charged for.

The second fare product includes a flight, 7kg hand luggage, one piece of check-in luggage and one free route or date and time change.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>