

Facebook Lite to offer Community Help in 100 countries

Social media platform Facebook is to launch Community Help on Facebook Lite in more than 100 countries.

Community Help is a part of Crisis Response on Facebook where people come to let friends and family know they are safe, learn and share more about what's happening in their communities, and help communities recover.

Facebook Lite is designed for people to access Facebook in areas with low connectivity or limited internet.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>