

Duke Corporate Education promotes Sharmla Chetty

Duke Corporate Education has promoted Sharmla Chetty to the position of president of global markets. Chetty was previously the president for Africa and global managing director for Europe.

In her position as the president of global markets, she leads Duke CE's global client business in customised executive education.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>