

Curro appoints new executive head of Curro Academy Mbombela

Curro Holdings has appointed Amanda Kedibone Mashila as the executive head of Curro Academy Mbombela.

Mashila was the head of primary school at Curro Academy Soshanguve in Gauteng and prior to joining the company, she has held various positions in the education sector, including head of primary school at Edendale Independent School and principal at Valhalla Primary.

She holds a bachelor of education honours degree in training and development from the University of Johannesburg and an advanced certificate in education: School leadership and management from the Mathew Goniwe School of Leadership.

Mashila assumed her new role on 1 November.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>