

Chariot launches first European daily shuttle service

Chariot has launched Europe's first daily commuter shuttle service in the United Kingdom. The shuttle service will operate in London with four routes aimed at complementing the city's existing public transport system.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>