

Newspapers ABC Q4 2018: 2018 ends on a low for newspaper industry

By Danette Breitenbach

14 Feb 2019

The Audit Bureau of Circulations of South Africa (ABC) last quarter (quarter 4) for 2018 ended on a disappointing note for the newspaper industry, with total newspaper circulation declining 1.6% on the previous quarter. The decline is disappointing given that total circulation was static in the second quarter and up in the first quarter.

However, this percentage was still less than quarter 3, which was its worst period with a decline of 2.9%,

Dampening spirits, even more, is the continuing trend of decline on the prior year, with quarter 4 showing a 3.3% decline on the prior year. While slightly better than quarter 3's 4% and quarter 1's 4.4% - the worst quarterly decline on the prior year for 2018 - it was still more than the best quarter on the prior year, Q2 which had a 2.5% decline.

Daily Newspapers

The decline in the previous quarter continued for Daily Newspapers, but Q4's 1.9% was the second-best quarter for the year. Apart a nearly half a percentage increase in Q1, Q2 and Q3 of 2018 declined by over 4% and over 2% respectively. The quarter saw a 7.6% decline on the prior year. While still a big decline, it is almost half the decline of Q1, Q2 and Q3, all of which had double-digit declines.

The Star, which showed an increase in Q3 over the previous quarter and year, declined in Q4 by 0.8%, but continued its upward movement over the prior year, with a 1.7% increase.
