

Magazine to address insecurity issues launched

By Chrispinus Wekesa

A magazine to highlight security matters has been launched. Proprietor Peter Ngare said Security magazine will share news on safety and crime, new products and technical solutions. The magazine was launched at Eka Hotel on Mombasa Road on Friday evening.

"Today's launch is for the May-August issue, focussing on transport systems and ways of enhancing security in government offices," Ngare said. He said the magazine was necessitated by the recent spate of insecurity.

Source: All Africa

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>