The official opening of City Lodge Hotel Newtown

The City Lodge Hotel Group held an official hotel opening on 26 May 2016, in its new spot right in the hub of Newtown. 160 invited guests stepped through the doors to celebrate the creative thought put into this 'home away from home'.

Representatives from the travel industry, including Rennies Travel, BCD Travel, TWF Corporate and Amextravel, were welcomed with drinks, snacks and live music to tour the new hotel and all of its facilities. Guests were in good spirits, with spot prizes awarded to lucky winners, and the mouthwatering appetisers leaving the kitchen were in high demand.

Newtown: a cultural and creative hub in the inner city

One of the highlights of the night was being able to view the immense work of art above the lounge – a plaster wall mural of the panoramic Johannesburg skyline, created by the talented artist, Carl Maritz. Over the course of two weeks, consisting of 14-hour days, Maritz chipped away at the plaster to reveal the raw beauty of the Johannesburg city centre, now on display for the official launch of City Lodge Hotel Newtown.

City Lodge Hotel Newtown is situated right across the road from Newtown Junction and The Workshop, where local talent create and showcase their work. This area on the Johannesburg map overflows with history and holds the ruins where determination and passion grew from barren land to the busy city. Iconic landmarks such as the first Park Station and the Nelson Mandela bridge can be seen from the window of the newly opened City Lodge Hotel. Staying in this trendy new space allows you to experience Newtown's rejuvenation right on your doorstep.

"We want this City Lodge hotel to be seen as a destination and that is why us working together with all in the area is so important. We want to sell an experience not a hotel room." – Anton Rademeyer, General Manager at City Lodge Hotel Newtown, Johannesburg.
