Do you sigh every time you see Comic Sans used unironically? Does the sight of mismatched colour palettes make you want to grab your colour wheel in defence? If you're shaking your head (or, better yet, nodding) with passionate agreement, we have a chair (with possibly pre-adjusted lumbar support) just for you!

Who are we?

We're not your typical B2B agency. We think most B2B creative is #bbm (bland, boring and mundane). Think of us as the superheroes turning B2B into "Be Too Brave"! Gone are the days of snooze-worthy bar graphs and slideshows that scream monotone. We're on a quest to make B2B so riveting that it stands for "Breathtaking 2 Brilliant"!

Why would you want to?

- Our creative and art directors are industry legends (they push, prod, and motivate you to new heights)
- What's next for you? More conceptual? More art direction? Creative direction? (we'll give you the path)
- Open door policy: From the interns to the top dogs, everyone's voice is valued, got a radical idea or feedback? Our leadership's door (real and virtual) is always open.
- A library of design memes so niche only you and your team will get them.

Joining us isn't just about getting a job; it's about growing, evolving, and becoming the best version of your professional self.

You must be proficient in:

- InDesign: Where every page layout becomes a masterpiece.
- Photoshop: Yes, we know it's more than just removing those pesky zits.
- Illustrator: Where you pen-tool your way to perfection.

Would be super cool if you know:

- After Effects: Because who doesn't love some motion in their ocean?
- Premiere Pro: For those times when still designs just won't cut it.

Design skills that will make us swoon:

- Killer layout skills: Symmetry is the name, designing is the game.
- Strong visual communicator: Can you make visuals that speak? Literally?

Other spells to have in your wizardry bag:

- Time wizardry: Always be on point.
- The ability to juggle: Not balls, but multiple projects. It's all about balance.
- Conceptual genius: We love a good thinker.
- Ever-eager learner: Show us that unquenchable thirst!
- Initiative taker: See a gap? Fill it. See a problem? Solve it.
